A violin recital will be given by Richard L. Hoffman at 3:15 p.m. today (December 17) in the Music Room of College Hall on the New College campus. The musical performance is open to the public without charge.

Performing a four-part program, the Chicago violinist will play music by Brahms, Walton, Chaynes and Escobar.

Hoffman, who performed in recitals here in 1960 and 1963, studied music at the Eastman School, graduating in 1955. A violinist since he was five, Hoffman was formerly concertmaster of the Youth Orchestra of Greater Chicago and has been a soloist with an Illinois symphony orchestra.

His program will consist of Johannes Brahms' Sonata No. 3 in D Minor, William Walton's Concerto in B Minor, Charles Chaynes' Six Little Italian Pictures, and Amadeo Escobar's Three Gypsy Pieces.

He will be accompanied at the piano by Miss Dora Alanen.

In his two previous appearances in Sarasota, Hoffman gave recitals at the Florida West Coast Symphony Rehearsal Hall.
