

NEW COLLEGE
Fine Arts Institute
Exhibition

Students, faculty and staff of New College are invited to attend the preview opening of the first exhibition of the work of the students of the New College Fine Arts Institute. This opening will be held at the Ringling Museum of Art at 8 p.m. Sunday, April 4. The exhibition will include one work by each participant in the institute. These works are expected to go on a tour of colleges and universities and then to become a part of the permanent collection of New College. Following the opening, the exhibition will be on view to the public in the Museum's Gallery 18 until April 18.

Syd Solomon
for the students and faculty of the Fine Arts Institute