

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Oct. 5, 1965

New College student Paul MacNeil presents a clarinet recital Friday at 7 p.m., in College Hall as part of his studies.

Paul will be accompanied on the piano by his mother and also during part of the program by student Cheryl McWhorter, playing the flute.

The recital is open to the public.

On the recital program will be: Clarinet Concerto in A Major, by Mozart; Concertino for Flute, by Chaminade; Sonata for ~~Clarinet~~ and Piano, by Leonard Bernstein.

Paul presents this recital in fulfillment of the requirements for an independent study period project. Each student utilizes his time during these periods to do special study, research, or work. At the conclusion students demonstrate progress they have made.

Paul is now in his second year at New College. He is the son of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. John Whitney MacNeil, of 2616 Hibiscus Street.

#