KOREAN FOLK DANCE GROUP APPEARS IN SARASOTA SUNDAY

Twenty-six young Korean girls, all trained in the folk dances of their own country, will appear at Sarasota's Municipal Auditorium Sunday, November 7, at 8 p.m. With them will be Korean ambassador to the United States Hyun Chul Kim, who will accept a scholarship for a Korean student to attend New College.

The Little Angels, as the young Koreans are known, are making their first American tour. All of them, between the ages of seven and thirteen, were picked in a Korean-wide talent search and have been training for three years.

The performance is being sponsored by The Friends of New College as a benefit.

Tickets are available at $5 for adults and $2 for students at New College.
