FURMAN C. ARTHUR - INFORMATION

FOR RELEASE : ON RECEIPT

Pianist Larry Graham, a student of New College Professor of Music Jacques Abram, will offer a piano recital Monday (December 19) at 7:30 p.m. in College Hall on the New College campus.

The public is invited to attend the recital by the young pianist who last October was a semi-finalist in the national Van Cliburn competition.

Graham, a student during the first two New College Summer Music Festivals, studied at Juilliard School of Music and is now working for his degree at the University of South Florida where Abram also is a member of the faculty.

On the program for the evening recital will be Bach's Partita in E Minor, Beethoven's Sonata Appassionata Opus 57, and Schumann's Sonata in F Sharp Minor.
