

NEW COLLEGE NEWS RELEASE

NEW COLLEGE, SARASOTA, FLORIDA
FURMAN C. ARTHUR — INFORMATION

FOR RELEASE: Sunday, June 19, 1966

Two concentrated weeks of chamber music classes and performances open today as the New College Summer Music Festival begins with student registration and the first of seven public concerts.

Classes begin officially tomorrow on the college campus, but all participants and auditors are expected to register from noon until 2 p.m. today. The opening concert will be held at the Florida West Coast Symphony Hall at 3 p.m. today.

This is the second year for the festival, which is acknowledged as Florida's only summer festival devoted to chamber music.

Weekdays are crammed with musical events, beginning in early morning hours with master classes and ensemble coaching, and continuing until late evening hours with artist and orchestra rehearsals.

Sunday afternoons and Friday and Saturday nights during the festival are devoted to concerts performed by the teaching faculty and assisting artists.

Saturday mornings each of the two weeks feature concerts by the festival students.

-more-

Today's concert will have some of the widely-known faculty and assisting artists in a program which has great variety.

Robert Nagel of the New York Brass Quintet will lead a group performing Holdborne's Three Pieces for Brass Quintet.

Cellist Gabor Rejto and pianist Jacques Abram will perform Beethoven's Sonata No. 3 in A. Major, Opus 69 followed by Persichetti's Pastorale played by flutist Julius Baker, oboist Robert Bloom, clarinetist Keith Wilson, bassoonist Leonard Sharrow and Michael Coyle on the French horn.

Bloom and Abram next perform Schumann's Romances and then Villa-Lobos' Bachianas Brasileiras No. 6 will be played by Baker and Sharrow. Finale for the program will be Wilson, Rejto, violinists Paul Wolfe and Anita Brooker and violist David Dawson performing Mozart's Quintet in A Major.

Tickets for this afternoon performance will be available at the door of the Florida West Coast Symphony Hall at the Civic Center in Sarasota preceding the concert.

Other chamber concerts will be performed on Friday and Saturday, June 24 and 25 and Friday and Saturday, July 1 and 2, at 8:30 p.m. Chamber orchestra concerts will be held Sunday afternoon, June 26 and July 3 at 3 p.m.

Tickets for all concert performances are on sale at the Sport Shop in Sarasota and at Hullingers Music Store in Bradenton as well as at New College.

Members of the faculty for the two week festival this year are Jacques Abram, piano; Julius Baker, flute; John Barrows, French horn; Robert Bloom, oboe; David Dawson, viola; Gaston Dufresne, double bass; Leslie Parnas, cello; Gabor Rejto, cello; Patricia Stenberg, woodwinds; Walter Trampler, viola, and Paul Wolfe, director of the festival and violinist.