

NEW COLLEGE NEWS RELEASE

NEW COLLEGE, SARASOTA, FLORIDA
FURMAN C. ARTHUR — INFORMATION

FOR RELEASE: SUNDAY, MARCH 6, 1966

A newly-formed speakers bureau of New College students makes its first appearance next Wednesday, March 9th, when its members present a discussion before members of the Phi Beta Kappa Society at 8 p.m. in College Hall.

Seven students will take part in the discussion which will be on the subject of, "What Is a New College Experience?"

Organized by Dr. Patricia Drabik, assistant professor of speech at New College, the speakers group now is offering programs to answer requests of community organizations, schools, or interested groups.

Dr. Drabik said that the students wish to extend their experience beyond the classroom, and that they also believe this is an excellent way for them to learn more of the community in which the college is located. It is also, she said, an opportunity for the community to become acquainted with the New College student, his interests, his talents, and his work.

Taking part in the initial program, which was arranged by Edwin Gleason, Phi Beta Kappa program chairman, are: Charles Raeburn, second year political science major from Wilmington, Del., the moderator; Ruthanne Stange, first year student of Sarasota; Vicki Pearthree, first year psychology major from Waukesha, Wis.; Ann Hart, first year history major from Wash., D.C.; Allan Jaworski, first year physics and math major from Passaic, N.J.; Dan Haggarty, first year student interested in teaching, from Chippewa Falls, Wis.; and David Allen, first year philosophy major from Shreveport, La.

-more-

The students, at the request of community organizations, will appear singly or in groups to discuss individual topics which they have prepared, or to talk about their experiences at New College.

Student topics range from recent experiences to broad topics of national interest, one student having served as an American Field Service worker.

Information may be obtained, or arrangements made for a speakers bureau program through Furman C. Arthur, director of Public Relations at New College.

Five of the seven New College students who will discuss New College experiences before the Phi Beta Kappa Association Wednesday, discuss the presentation they will make. Seated, left to right, are Dan Haggarty, Vicki Pearthree, Charles Raeburn, and David Allen, while Allan Jaworski is standing. The group makes up the nucleus of a New College Speakers Bureau which will provide students to talk before community groups in the area.