Sarasota, Fla. -- Kathryn Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Smith, Lafayette, La., has been elected a representative on the student government at New College.

Katie, a first-year student at New College, was elected to the Student Executive Committee. She is one of three representatives elected from her class to the nine-member committee.

Following her election, Katie was appointed to the Supervisory Committee; as chairman of this committee she will oversee regular student elections held twice a year, and any other votes which may be held.

New College, now in its third year of operation, is a college of the liberal arts and sciences offering a bachelor's degree in three full years of study. The school maintains a high faculty to student ratio and stresses small classes, seminars, and independent study.
