

NEW COLLEGE NEWS RELEASE

April 7, 1967

NEW COLLEGE, SARASOTA, FLORIDA
FURMAN C. ARTHUR — INFORMATION

To the Editor: Meet Local Student

SARASOTA, FLA. — Eleven members of the first graduating class of New College have been selected as winners of 10 of the most coveted national fellowships for graduate study. More than 80 per cent of the graduating class is planning to do graduate work. The students with their hometown, field of study, and award are: front row, left to right: Ray B. Enslow, Peoria, Ill., philosophy, Danforth Foundation Fellow; Dennis Kazar, Lawrence, Ind., philosophy, Woodrow Wilson Foundation Fellow; Paul K. Hansma, Scottsdale, Ariz., physics, National Science Foundation Fellow; Rachel Findley, La Grange, Ill., mathematics, Danforth Foundation Fellow; David N. Rollow, Chamblee, Ga., English, Woodrow Wilson Foundation Fellow; Timothy Dunsworth, St. Louis Park, Minn., philosophy, Woodrow Wilson Foundation Fellow; back row, left to right, Thomas Bell, New Orleans, La., physics, National Science Foundation ;honorable mention; William Thurston, Silver Spring, Md., mathematics, Woodrow Wilson Foundation Fellow; Neil Olsen, Cocoa, Fla., mathematics, Woodrow Wilson Foundation Fellow and Fulbright Grant; Henry Thomas, Columbus, Ga., mathematics, Woodrow Wilson Foundation and National Science Foundation honorable mention; Raymond Bennett, Shady Side, Md., psychology, National Science Foundation Fellow.