FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SARASOTA--Three five-week discussion groups in philosophy, literature, and religion, led by advanced students, will be offered to the public at New College beginning Monday, February 12.

Called "Dialogues in the Humanities," the three groups are directed to the interests of the adult community and will attempt to cover some of the most interesting ideas in each field.

Each of the classes, which will run from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in New College's Hamilton Center, will be organized on a seminar basis with registration limited to 20 members. A registration fee of $3 will be charged to cover the cost of the course.
