

sunshine daily

Wednesday, Nov. 7, '73

General Announcements

Faculty Meeting, 3:30 pm, Teaching Auditorium, preceded by coffee hour for the college community. 2:30 pm, Hamilton Center.

Film - Asolo Theatre - "The Stranger", a philosophical study of a murderer, w/Marcello Mastroianni. Italy, 1968, dubbed-in English dialogue. 2:30, 7 & 9 pm, Admission, $1.00.

Women's Action Meeting, 8 pm tonite in the Fishbowl.

Those interested in forming a Middle East discussion group for credit next term will meet tonite in H-4B at 8 pm.

Higher States of Consciousness class will meet this afternoon, 4-5:30 p.m. in H-2B. Topic will be biofeedback and the physiology of meditation. Everyone welcome.

NC students with ID's can use facilities at the YMCA (South Euclid and Bahia Vista) for $.50 each time, or $22.80 for a 12 month membership. Facilities include basketball courts, handball courts, weights, pool. A city bus leaves from Gen. Spatz and goes directly to the Y on the hour during the day. With ID'S, NC students can obtain discounts on bus tickets, making each trip $.20. If interested, apply at the YMCA.

NC Choral Group will meet tonite at 7pm in H-2A.

Jungle garden's class in orchid growing, 10 am. All are welcome.

Jewelry-making class will meet tonite, 7-10 pm in the Craft Room in "A" Bldg.

A free subscription to the Christian Science Monitor is available for foreign students on campus. If interested, give your name to Lee Murphy in Student Affairs.

Student Affairs has found one (1) vacuum cleaner. All students who have vacuum cleaners (properly checked-out or not) are asked to return them immediately.

Recreational Activities

Gymnastics - 4-6 pm, east of pool.

Volleyball - 4-6 pm, west of pool.

Pool hours - noon 'til 5:45 p.m. daily.

Tennis Lessons - 1-3 pm, courts.

The classical ballet class will not meet this evening.

Open Stage film Society presents "Make Way for Tomorrow", Thursday, Nov. 8. This film has been called the "...only important statement on film about old age." Beulah Bondi and Victor Moore. 1247 First. St., 2, 7:30 and 9:30 pm. Admission, $1.00.
