

sunshine daily

Tuesday, Nov. 13, 1973

General Announcements

Informal gathering of NC women of the faculty and staff, and the wives of faculty and staff. 8 pm, South Hall.

Special Natural Science Research Seminar
Dr. Peter Haushka (Harvard Medical Sch.),
"The determination of protein structure: the biochemistry of a unique protein--collagen." 3:30 pm, NS-21.

SEC Meeting, 6:15 p.m. in the Fishbowl.

Three films on extra-sensory perception and mysticism, including one featuring the Apollo 14 astronaut who conducted telepathy experiments from space, will be shown tonite at 7 and 9 pm in the Teaching Auditorium. Two of the three movies cover spiritual healing, bio-feedback, current ESP research, Kirlian photography, and acupuncture. The third film is a study of Tibetan Buddhism by Dr. Huston Smith. Donations to help cover the rental of the films will be appreciated.

Dr. Rosenbluth WILL BE OUT OF TOWN AND NOT ON CAMPUS NOV. 14th. He will be here on Nov. 28th. If you've already made an appointment, call Nursie to be rescheduled.

Participants in the political simulation over ISP please meet tonite for an hour's session. 8 pm, Peggy Bates' apartment, Rm. 141.

Students in Introduction to Psychology class: Dr. Smillie will NOT BE ABLE TO LECTURE TODAY due to illness. Dr. Gorfein will be available 2:30-3:00 pm in the Teaching Auditorium to answer questions related to course content.

"Coffee and Conversation", Dr. Bates', 141 Hamilton Court, 9-12 p.m. All are welcome.

Dr. Smillie is looking for second-hand copies of three books by Piaget: Origins of Intelligence, The Construction of Reality, and Play, Dreams, and Imitation. If any students who have taken the Piaget course are interested in employment for ISP, he is also looking for a research assistant. Leave a message in his mail box in the Social Science Bldg.

During a social event Tuesday evening (Nov. 6), attended by friends of the college, a large white handkerchief bordered with red ruffles was lost in the South Hall-Music Room area. If it is found, it may be returned to the Development Office.

Spanish conversation group will meet in upper E dorm, north common room, at 7:30 p.m. tonite. All levels welcome.

A fire extinguisher is missing from East Campus. If it is not returned before the SEC meeting, a search will be conducted.

Recreational Activity

Karate- H-1, 7-9 p.m.

Aikido Class leaves from Ham. C. at 6 pm

Jazz Dance - 6:30-8 pm, Music Room.

Yoga - 10 am, beginners, H-1.

Volleyball - 4-6 pm, west of pool.
