

sunshine daily

Wednesday, September 19, 1973

TODAY is the deadline for submission of CONTRACTS to the Recorder's Office.

Mrs. Arland Christ-Janer underwent elective surgery Tuesday to alleviate a longstanding heart condition. The operation was originally scheduled for early October but was moved ahead when a cancellation occurred. President Christ-Janer flew to Rochester late Monday, cancelling his schedule for the remainder of the week. Flowers and a special message are to be sent on behalf of the college community.

Faculty Meeting - 3:30 pm in Teaching Auditorium. Before meeting at 2:30 pm all members of the college community are invited for coffee and donuts in Hamilton Center.

Off-campus students please leave names & addresses at reception desk (how else can we reach you????)

On-campus students-be sure you notify Student Affairs of any room changes.

String Quartet-rehearsal of 1st movemt. of Beethoven's Op.59, No.1, and 1st movemt. of Quartet No. 1, by Ronald Riddle.-9-11:30 a.m., Music Room.

Hasty's last trip-(big truck); 2:30 pm, meet in front of Physical Plant.

SEWING MACHINES-WHERE ARE YOU? If anyone knows where one of the 3 machines are, please see Lee Murphy in Student Affairs.

Anyone who has suggestions for medical department see Lee in Student Affairs this morning.

Poetry films will be shown Thursday afternoons at 2:30 in Auditorium. See list posted in Hamilton Center for more information. All are welcome.

Recreational Activities

Volleyball-west of pool, 4:00 p.m.

POLAR BEAR CLUB: early-morning swimming, 7-8 am, Mon-Fri; and 7:30-8:30 am on Sat. No Sunday early swim'g.

Welding-sculpture barracks-9:00 a.m.

Gymnastics-4-6 pm, outside of old barracks across from pool.

Tennis Lessons-courts, 1-3 p.m.

Yoga-open to whole NC community-7:30-9:00 p.m., in H-1.

Choral Group- all interested meet tonite in H-2 A at 7:30 p.m.

Film Club Organization Meeting - Fishbowl, 6:00 p.m. tonite.

Higher State of Consciousness-those interested meet in H-2 B today, 4-5:30.

The Faculty and Staff of New College are cordially invited to participate in all recreational activities of the school.

Weaving-all interested please meet in Lee Murphy's office at 4 pm today.

Marching Band - all those even remotely interested meet tonite at 7 pm in the Cafeteria.
